

*One man told her she couldn't ...
Dallas' first female firefighter teaches how to get fired-up and live life passionately!*

Sherrie C. Wilson
Author, Speaker, Catalyst for Change

Story Ideas

- Five steps to unleash passion.
- Can you imagine... Being tackled and held down during a fire and having your mask disconnected and still finishing your job anyway!
- Emergencies Team Dynamics for everyday work and home.
- What is the first thing to say to a person who harasses you at work?
- Transform old belief systems into powerful, positive relationships.

Sherrie was the first female firefighter-paramedic in the Dallas Fire Rescue Department. Sherrie shares how to push through the pain of life, face darkness of negativity, and win in the end. These inspiring tales are getting great reviews and introduce stories about facing the impossible and witnessing the miracles in life through faith, belief and perseverance.

Contact Information

Mailing address: PO Box 740275 Dallas, Texas 75374
Office 972.235.8330 Cell 214.869.9000 (text gets the fastest response)

Author/Speaker "Faith on Fire"

Email: Sherrie@faithonfire.com
Website: www.faithonfire.com

Health/Safety Expert

Email: president@emresources.net Website: www.emresources.net

Social Media

www.facebook.com/sherrie.wilson1 www.twitter.com/SherrieCWilson
www.linkedin.com/in/sherriecwilson

Links To Interviews

<http://dfw.cbslocal.com/video/3381096-texans-with-character-sherrie-wilson/>
<http://dfw.cbslocal.com/2011/08/17/first-female-firefighter-in-dallas-retiring-after-34-years/>